JOIN WOMEN

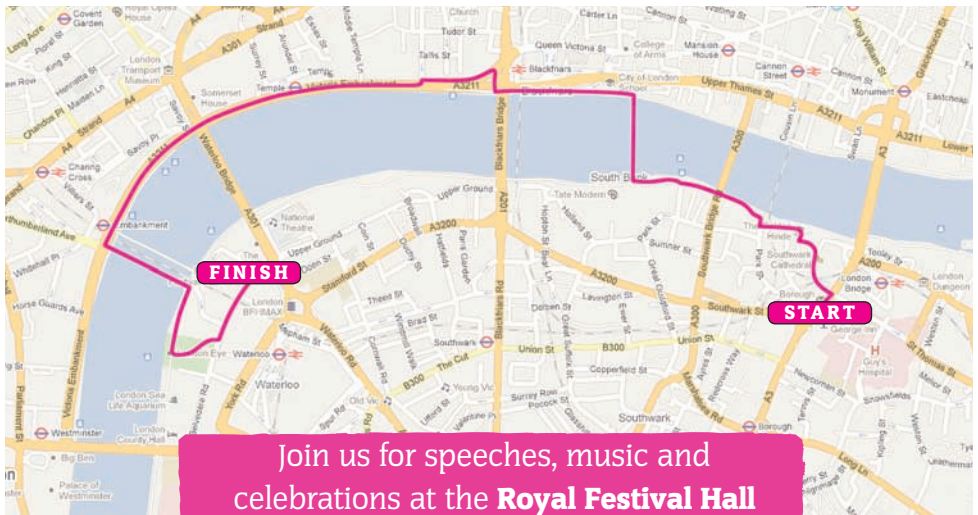

all over the world on March 8th
to say “no” to war and “yes” to peace and hope.

Women will be gathered on bridges from Australia to India, from Afghanistan to Ireland, all celebrating the centenary year of International Women’s Day.

JOIN WOMEN

in London from 10am at Borough Market for coffee and banner making.

The London March, led by Annie Lennox will leave Borough Market at 11 am, walking along the south side of the river to Millennium Bridge, crossing the Thames to the North side then continuing west along the river walk way past Victoria Embankment Gardens, then crossing back along Hungerford Bridge to the South side of the river and finishing at the Royal Festival Hall for speeches.
