Longleat House is widely regarded as one of the best examples of high Elizabethan architecture in Britain and one of the most beautiful stately homes open to the public. Substantially completed by 1580 and now home to the 7th Marquess of Bath, Longleat House is set within 900 acres of stunning 'Capability' Brown landscaped parkland.

Opened in 1966, Longleat was the first ever Safari Park outside Africa. The drive-through safari adventure takes the visitors unbelievably close to fabulous exotic creatures. The lions of Longleat are famous worldwide.
